Contributions to Friends of Paul Mitchell are not deductible as charitable contributions for Federal income tax purposes. Contributions from corporations, labor unions, Federal government contractors, and foreign nationals not lawfully admitted for permanent residence in the United States are prohibited. Federal law requires political committees to use their best efforts to obtain and report the name, mailing address, employer, and occupation for each individual whose contribution exceeds $200 in the election cycle. An individual may contribute up to $5,400 in an election cycle ($2,700 in the primary and $2,700 in the general). A couple may contribute up to $10,800 in an election cycle ($5,400 in the primary and $5,400 in the general) from a joint account as long as both individuals sign the check or the donor form. A multi-candidate Federal PAC may contribute up to $10,000 in an election cycle ($5,000 in the primary and $5,000 in the general).
